both at Wetherby Methodist Church

Wetherby Methodist Church
and St James' Church presents...

Faith in Film

Stephen Brown is an Anglican priest who is also is a teacher, journalist and broadcaster specialising in film studies as a means of understanding ourselves, and our faith, more deeply.

Stephen is Church Times Film Correspondent.

The Lent Lectures will explore through movies like Notting Hill and The King's Speech
what divides us as people, and what unites us.

The talks have been arranged by St James' Church & Wetherby Methodist Church.

Everyone is welcome
from any church or none.

Refreshments
will be served
